What sets us apart?

Our Community

First and foremost, we're there for you. We're not in this business to make a quick buck. We love beekeeping and the community that surrounds it. Our goal is to be a partner with you and build a great, long-lasting relationship that you can rely on. We listen to both distributor and client needs and tailor our products and solutions to what you need most. We'll stand up for you, protect your best interests, and always be there to support you 100%. We're in this with you!

Our Products

Secondly, and most importantly for your bottom line, we promise to always supply the best quality materials at the very best prices. We have a HUGE range of products, so you can find everything you need in one place without having to constantly shop around. We also make sure you have all the marketing and informational content you need: high resolution pictures in TIF and JPG format for your website and catalog, as well as a PDF and print copy of all product manuals. You'll find everything you need and the unbeatable prices you want.

Our Support

Customer service is number one with us! Not only do we provide phone and email support for all your questions during normal business hours (EST), but we also provide top-of-the-line training. We give all our new distributors 3 days of FREE training, and we also offer free training once a year for all the newest products, as well as additional training on demand. You'll never be out of the loop on a new product again.

Our Promises

We have a 1-year standard warranty on ALL equipment, and most larger equipment comes with an expanded 2-year warranty. If anything comes to you less than perfect, we'll replace it fast. We carry all the spare parts to get things up and running without the wait. And our pricing is stable and the same for everyone – if we need to change our price 5% or more, we'll give you 30 days' notice so you're not caught in a bind. Both of these give you peace of mind that you'll always have the best equipment at the best prices, without games or hassle.

Our Partnership

We're here to work with you, not against you. Our prices are steady and fair. If we do have a limited time special on a product, we'll notify you first so you can choose whether or not to adjust your prices accordingly. We'll also protect your territory – once you're working with us, we won't do business with another distributor in your zone. We're with you for the long haul.

What it all comes down to is that we're here for you. We believe in honesty, integrity, great prices, and amazing service. Give us a call and let's talk about how we can work together to grow your business!
